Indian Army demonstrates disaster relief capabilities at India-Myanmar Joint Exercise

Chennai, Nov. 7:

The Indian Army showcased its capabilities in Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief (HADR) capabilities during the two-day India-Myanmar joint exercise, Baker Mitra, held in Chennai recently.

Conducted jointly by India and Myanmar, the exercise aimed to enhance interoperability and preparedness for humanitarian emergencies and disaster response operations.

Operating alongside the Indian Navy and Indian Air Force, the exercise demonstrated the capabilities of Flood Relief Columns and Engineer Task Forces through operational demonstrations, joint operations, engineering bridge construction to restore connectivity and provide access to disaster-affected communities.

The exercise also featured professional interactions and the live, physical human suffering and sound humanitarian assistance.

countries to share best practices, improve response procedures and build mutual trust and confidence.

The joint exercise enhanced interoperability and disaster response capabilities of both armies through operational demonstrations and collaborative training. Reaffirming its commitment to the principle of 'Service Before Self', the Indian Army's participation in the exercise

TN steps up ward delimitation for local polls

Chennai, Nov. 7:

Preparations for the upcoming local body elections in Tamil Nadu have gathered pace, with the State Delimitation Commission holding consultations with ward boundaries and determine the number of elected representatives in reorganised local bodies. The Commission has decided to recommend reservation of seats for members to the State Government as part of the election preparations.

The decision was taken at a meeting chaired by State Election Commissioner and Delimitation Commission Chairperson Jothi Nirmalasamy here on Tuesday. Tamil Nadu Government Commission office in Chennai on Thursday.

In a statement, the meeting examined petitions seeking creation or expansion of elected representatives in the reorganised local bodies, including Municipal Corporations, Municipalities, Town Panchayats and Gandevalathalai Panchayat Unions.

Similar petitions were received from Town Panchayat on Kallakurichi district and Melmaruvathur and Thathkulam Village Panchayats in Tirukkoyilur district, it was also discussed.

Following deliberations, the Commission decided to submit recommendations to the Tamil Nadu Government on the number of elected members required for these local bodies.

The meeting also discussed the proposals reasonable to expedite the delimitation of ward boundaries in the identified local bodies.

The Commission will submit the reorganisation and division of certain local bodies after the previous rural local body elections in 2021 and the petitions received is considered a big step before elections can be conducted in the affected areas.

Secretary to Government of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj Ansuman, Director of Municipal Administration Vijayalakshmi, Director of Town Panchayats K. Ganesan, Director of Election Commission Secretary Shanmuga Sundaram attended the meeting.
