

webinar on "Budget 2021: Managing the Pandemic, Public and Policies" with public policy experts from across sectors. The session dovetailed into the challenges put forth by the pandemic on the Indian economy and how public policy in India. The panel focused on how policy making in the current top-down approach is not a sustainable model for India. Bridging the current process gaps can happen only by training professionals who are empowered to tackle the challenges of modern India. The idea of public policy being technocratic must be changed to understanding the art and science behind it.

contribute to its growth. The idea of empathy was spoken about to put ourselves in the shoes
