Govt launched district-level decarbonisation action plan

Chennai, Nov 1: To achieve low-carbon and climate-resilient development, the state government has launched district-level decarbonisation action plans, along with a digital climate action tracker.

The initiative, a collaboration involving the state, Tamil Nadu Green Climate Company and Vasudha Foundation, aims to drive climate-smart growth across the state by adopting clean energy solutions, transforming mobility systems, and enhancing carbon sequestration through nature-based interventions.

State forest secretary Supriya Sahu said decarbonisation means reducing or eliminating carbon emissions, a goal that can be achieved by switching from fossil fuels to renewable energy. Replacing thermal power generation with solar energy would substantially cut carbon emissions, and promoting electric mobility can help reduce pollution from the transport sector.

Officials said the state's decarbonisation strategy rests on two key pillars - transitioning to renewable energy sources and expanding afforestation efforts to sequester carbon. Increasing forest and green cover, including mangroves and seagrass ecosystems, will help absorb more carbon from the atmosphere.

It will initially be implemented in The Nilgiris, Virudhunagar, Coimbatore, and Ramanathapuram districts, which together contributed 10.38 per cent to Tamil Nadu's gross state domestic product (GSDP) for 2022-23.

Studies estimate that up to 92 per cent of projected emissions in these districts can be mitigated by 2050 through clean energy adoption, improved industrial efficiency, sustainable mobility, and ecosystem restoration. Additionally, about 2.97 million tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent could be sequestered by 2050 through forest restoration, agroforestry, and coastal ecosystem rejuvenation. The Tamil Nadu Climate Action Tracker, an integrated digital platform, will monitor emissions, track progress, and support evidence-based policy decisions to guide the state toward its net-zero vision.

Rela Hospital launches mobile stroke treatment unit

Chennai, Nov 1: In commemoration of World Stroke Day, Rela Hospital in Chromepet, Chennai, launched a mobile stroke treatment unit to provide timely care and raise awareness about stroke prevention and management. The inauguration was held in the presence of Dr. Mohammed Rela, Chairman of Rela Hospital.

Filmmaker Aishwarya Rajinikanth was the chief guest at the event and officially launched the initiative. The ceremony was also attended by Dr. Shankar Balakrishnan, Head of Neurology and Neurosciences at Rela Hospital, and Dr. Muralidharan Vetrivel, Consultant Neurovascular Surgeon.

Speaking at the event, Dr. Mohammed Rela highlighted the global significance of World Stroke Day, observed annually on October 29 to increase awareness about stroke prevention, early symptoms, treatment options, and support for stroke survivors.

"This year's theme emphasizes that 'Every Minute Matters,' underscoring the urgency of recognizing stroke symptoms and initiating prompt treatment," he said.

The newly launched mobile stroke unit aims to provide rapid on-site services, including neurological assessment, coagulation testing, teleconsultation with neurologists, immediate patient transfer to the hospital, and preliminary rehabilitation guidance. The initiative also seeks to create a support network for stroke survivors and caregivers, enabling them to share experiences and rebuild confidence.

With this service, Rela Hospital hopes to significantly improve emergency stroke response times and enhance post-stroke recovery outcomes across Chennai and surrounding areas.
